

Iron County Register

IRONTON, : : JULY 13, 1899.

E. D. AKE, EDITOR.

VOLUME XXXIII. NUMBER 3.

How long, O gracious lords, until the Cubans shall be declared fit for self-government?

THE boys do not seem to be running over each other in their anxiety to get to the Philippines.

THE projected World's Fair fund subscriptions are not piling up to suit. Is the Big Show business a played-out industry?

WITH New York street railway employees striking for $1.25 a day, this McKinley Prosperity doesn't seem so chin-deep as it might be. New York, you know, is now the "most prosperous city" in the Union.

In referring to this paper the last issue of the Salem Monitor says: "The REGISTER is reliable at all times." This is a compliment of which we are truly proud. A newspaper should ever endeavor to maintain a reputation for veracity.

SOME of the Republican papers are intimating that the election law recently enacted for St. Louis has some of the features of the "force bills," against which Democrats proclaimed so bitterly. Of course, the comparison is far-fetched. But we can assure our Republican brethren that the REGISTER will ever be found opposing any election law that means negro domination and rule. And that and that alone is what the force bills meant.

CONGRESS solemnly declared on April 19, 1898, when it declared war against Spain: "The United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said island except for the pacification thereof, and asserts its determination when that is accomplished, to leave the government and control of the island to its people." Is not the island pacified? Is there any indication of a purpose to "leave the government and control of the island to its people?" Are the United States going to prove themselves a nation of liars?

Shelving Principle.

The following insolent paragraph appears in a New York special to the Post-Dispatch:

A combination of Southern Democrats with Tammany to defeat the Western Democrats and Southern Populists was effected in this city recently. The purpose of this combination is to force the fight at the National Committee meeting, and to compel Mr. Bryan to show his hand on anti-trust and tariff reform issues. * * * The New York leaders are opposed to Mr. Bryan on a silver platform. On an anti-trust and tariff reform platform he would not be so objectionable as on a hide-bound 16-to-1 platform.

Mr. Bryan showed his hand, backed by the hands of over six millions true and loyal Democrats in 1896, and the despicable New York Goldbug contingent may rest assured that the same hands will be visible in 1900. The "Southern and Western contingent" of bushwhackers devoted to the interests of Eastern Toryism is too insignificant to be seriously considered, and will not be apparent when the showing of hands is made.

Think of the insolence of the plutocratic blusterers who went over to the enemy in 1896! They meet and caucus and devise ways and means for the resumption of their old-time leadership in the councils of the Democratic party, and call upon the men who uphold its principles to "show their hands"! And when a hand is shown, unless it is open for boodle—unless it is raised in adoration of the Almighty Dollar—unless it is tinged with the yellow leprosy of the Money Trust—these New York political scoundrels who gave Mark Hanna 275,000 plurality can be depended upon to put up their hands in aid of the enemy.

These Judas Iscariots talk now of "tariff reform" and "anti-trust." God bless us! Who was it that brought contumely, disgrace and ridicule upon the cause of "tariff reform" and defeated the purposes of the loyal hosts who had once again, after issue squarely joined and exhaustively debated, entrusted the government to the hands of the Democracy? Not the silver-crazers of the West and South. Who are at the head of some of the biggest and most rascally trusts in the United States? Those self-same fellows who now want to shelve the silver issue in order to bend all their energies to the destruction of this new menacing evil! Is there a fool in all the land to be deceived by such bald professions!

When the sovereign people in overwhelming numbers in 1896 turned from the guidance of the Whitneys, the Cleverlands, the Brices, the Gormans, and all the self-seekers who hold that it is good to fool the fool people all the time—when a national declaration was made which was Democratic from skin to core, and from core back to skin again—who sat sullenly silent in the house of their friends, and then went home and used their utmost endeavors to defeat and destroy the party which had time and again honored them far beyond their deserts? To Hades with such Democrats and such Democracy!

We tell these people plainly now—and we speak ex cathedra—that should they prevail in shelving the issue which, more than any other, marks the will and the ability of the people for self-government, the end of the old Democratic party is deservedly at hand. With a platform of "glittering generalities" and a Gorman placed upon it, one cry all over this broad land will go up from the faithful—
"To your tents, O Israel!"

LOOK AT YOUR HANDS!

"At Deloma church where we came upon a detachment strongly intrenched we buried 411 soldiers while our loss was only one. We buried eighteen in one grave. There were women there, shot down while cooking for their husbands and brothers. There were lads of twelve and thirteen firing bravely to the last and old men who could hardly see." From letters published in the Boston Transcript.

Look at your hands when blood is shed
For lust of land or gold or fame,
And if you find them dripping red,
Think not the patriot's honored name
Will cleanse your guilt or purge your shame—
Look at your hands!

Look at your hands, most reverend priest,
Lest they should show that scarlet spot
Which stained Iscariot's, if the least
Of these, Christ's little ones, forgot,
Cry out to you who answer not—
Look at your hands!

Look at your hands, Sir President!
Do they not reek with your disgrace?
When freemen's knees to force are bent
The tears that stain each patriot's face,
Proclaim your treason to your race—
Look at your hands!

Look at your hands, who'er you be
Who drive in blood weak Esau's trade!
In your despite men shall be free,
But you against your shame are weighed;
And when the bargain's price is paid—
Look at your hands!

Ed. Register.—Having been confined to my bed nearly all the time for the past three weeks, I have had but little opportunity for gathering interesting news items for the REGISTER.

Notwithstanding the fact that there have been copious showers of rain nearly all over Iron, Reynolds and Dent counties during the past three weeks, there is a small scope of country in this immediate locality that has not had sufficient rain to thoroughly moisten the plowed ground during the past three weeks. However, corn looks fairly well.

There is a great deal of sickness in this and adjoining localities.

J. Raney Patterson has been very sick for the past two weeks, but we are glad to note that little Raney is convalescing.

Rev. W. R. Hawk has been somewhat indisposed for the past month. Laura Henderson and Thos. McMahon, two pupils of J. T. Patterson's class, have received certificates, and will teach the ensuing year; the one in Iron county, the other in Reynolds. So much for the West End's district schools.

H. Latham has traded his farm here for the W. A. Crocker farm, one and a half miles west of Cross Roads. Mr. L. will probably not move to Bellevue till January next.

Dr. Adams stopped over night with us last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Latham visited Judge Shy and family at Black one day this week.

Rev. Mr. Anthony, of the M. E. church, visited us yesterday afternoon.

Miss Becca McMahon, who has been visiting her brothers in St. Louis for the past six weeks, has returned home. July 7, 1899. P.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Geo. C. Jacobs, druggist.

The diseases treated successfully by Osteopathy are those resulting from an abnormal condition of the machinery of the body, the nerves, blood vessels, and fluids of the human system, which may be, and are without exception, caused by partial or complete dislocation of bones, muscles, tissues, etc. The following list of diseases, together with many others, succumb readily to Osteopathic treatment, often when all other treatment has failed: Brain fever, cerebro-spinal meningitis, headache in all its forms, granulated eyelids, sore and inflamed eyes, drooping eyes, pterygium, dizziness, vertigo of the nose, catarrh in its varied forms, enlarged tonsils, croup, whooping cough, asthma, pneumonia, hay-fever, gonorrhea, indigestion, nervous dyspepsia, lack of assimilation by the stomach, torpid liver, gall stones, neuralgia of the stomach and bowels, dysentery, flux, piles, fistula, irregularity of the heart, kidney diseases, rheumatism and neuralgia of all parts, atrophy of the limbs, female diseases, paralysis, varicose veins, milk leg, measles, mumps, chicken pox, eczema, fever or coldness of any part of the system, nervous prostration, etc. It also handles and controls with more certainty and success, all forms of acute diseases. Osteopathy knows no compromise with disease, because it depends on and works through the potent forces of nature herself. In mastering one disease it does not set up another abnormal condition in the system, worse than the one it expels. Its treatment is absolutely safe, and the per cent. of its radical cures are far in excess of every other known system. It is well known that many so-called varieties of ailment have a common origin. Osteopathy goes to the root, the prime cause of the disorder and eliminates it, giving nature the opportunity to return to normal and therefore healthful conditions.
